

EVERY EVENING—WILMINGTON, DELAWARE, THURS

The steamers Penn and Lord Baltimore of the Ericsson line, between Philadelphia and Baltimore, passed in the canal last night, in tow of the tug Senator Penrose, and will be taken to St. Georges this morning and tied up in the back channel of that place, their summer season of service having ended.